Together, this is

Living in the Fourth Day

These 15 talks delivered in a 72 hour weekend is often referred to as a "Three Day Walk" and is similar to Cursillo and Walk to Emmaus. Tres Dias is a non-denominational three day adult weekend.

In addition to the 15 talks given by both clergy and lay people, there is time for fellowship with the other participants on the weekend, some good food, uplifting music, and a little humor.

The purpose of Tres Dias is to develop Christian leaders and help each participant sustain their commitment to Jesus Christ as they pursue Christian action and leadership in their environments including the local church, home, neighborhood and place of work.

More specifically, the stated Tres Dias vision is:

To identify, train and equip Christian leaders who will spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ in their environments; who will grow in their spiritual life, and, who will demonstrate their love toward one another. Also, to encourage these leaders to assist their churches in carrying out the mission of their churches both locally and throughout the world for the glory of God.
